The 9th Asian Triangle Heavy-Ion Conference (ATHIC 2023) will be held in Hiroshima, Japan on April 24-27 (Mon-Thu), 2023.

Asian “Triangle” Heavy-Ion Conf. (ATHIC) has started in 2006 by China, Korea and Japan, later India has been included. The next conference is going to be organized hopefully in person in Hiroshima, while a hybrid style with an online participation is still an option depending on the COVID19 situation.

A satellite meeting is being planned in Tsukuba on April 29-30 (Sat-Sun), 2023 for “High Baryon Density physics workshop as STAR+CBM regional meeting” one day (April 28, Friday) to move from Hiroshima to Tsukuba
